~ Nearby Points of Interest ~

Camden - (pop. 6,676). Established in 1732, Camden is the oldest inland city in South Carolina and was the major British garrison of Lord Cornwallis. The battles of Hobkirk Hill and Camden were fought in the vicinity and 12 other Revolutionary War battles took place nearby. Restorations and reconstructions include fort sites, log cabins and 18th and 19th century homes.

Springdale Race Course - The world famous "Colonial Cup," one of the nation's richest steeplechase races is held here in late fall. The "Carolina Cup," a day of steeplechase and flat racing, takes place around Easter.
