LAKE HARTWELL

There isn't a prettier lake in the south for fishing, boating, sailing or swimming. The Army Corps of Engineers manages the entire lake so fishermen and boaters can enjoy their sports and the islands and coastlines are kept immaculate. Overnight camping is permitted on the islands and there are two boat ramps near the campground. Carolina Landing also has boat storage available.

PLACES OF INTEREST

Visit the Country Store for new brochures, maps and schedules for all area attractions, points of interest, shopping, crafts, activities and more.

Jockey Lot Flea Market - Sat. & Sun.
Clemson University - Botanical Gardens
Greenville Zoo - 49 Miles, Greenville, SC
Cabbage Patch Doll Hospital - Cleveland, GA
Alpine Village, Unicoi Park - Helen, GA
Chateau Elan Winery - I-85, Braselton, GA
The Pottery Outlet Mall - Commerce, GA
Biltmore Estates Gardens - Asheville, NC
Stumphouse Tunnel & Fishery Hatchery

A boat ramp is located 2/3 mile from camp, down Durham Rd. Go east by northeast, keeping all islands you see to the port (left) side of the boat. Keep bearing right until you see the Red Buoy #32. Turn right before buoy into cove. Go all the way to the back right side of cove to the beach and T-dock. Beware of high ground marking as well as children and other boats at beach.
