SETTING

White Oak Boat-In Campground Is one of two boat-in campgrounds on Laurel River Lake. It is accessible by boat or by a foot trail which begins near Marsh Branch boat ramp. The boat-in campgrounds are popular with boaters who wish to keep their boat near their campsite.

CAMPSITE INFORMATION

Most of the campsites are located near the water's edge and there are moorings near each site. The sites are spaced far enough apart to provide a sense of seclusion. Sites have a tent pad, picnic table, fire ring and lantern pole. Self-serve pay stations, water and chemical toilets are centrally located. There are no flush toilets or showers.

REGISTRATION

Campers are expected to register themselves at the self-serve pay station. The sites are rented on a first-come, first-served basis. The campground usually fills on weekends during the peak camping season.

SWIMMING

There is no beach at the campground, but there is a public beach operated by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at Laurel River Dam.

HIKING TRAILS

Cold Rock School Trail (#430) connects the campground to a trailhead near Marsh Branch boat ramp. The trail is 3.3 miles long and is marked with white diamonds on trees.

MARINA AND BOAT RAMP

The nearest marina is at Holly Bay. Marsh Branch boat ramp provides the nearest access to the campground.
